

MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL

VOLUME XVII.

THE SENTINEL.

Daily, $1.50—Tri-Weekly, $4—Weekly, $1.50
INvariably in Advance.

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN,
Publishers and Proprietors.

T. D. JERMAIN, N. H. BRIGHTMAN

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 12, 1860.

50¢ To Mail Subscribers. 75¢

THE FIGURES on the Price-List above you mean paid. For instance, 25¢ per issue paid to the 26th of April, 1861. Subscribers will be charged the full amount of the price posted, and, if they wish to can renew before the date to which the price is posted,
they may make a new entry.

Each issue of the paper is sent by mail accompanies the order.

JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN.

To the Public.

The Sentinel, having done the circulation in every city, and more than twice out of it, of any other paper here, render it for the character of the paper and the all classes of Advertising.

Young Friends who can't afford their own interest, will be pleased to have the columns of this paper especially when he can do so at the same price charged for the paper. The paper is now the organ of the circulation.

This is no bad, but very good work.

For Telegraph, &c., see Fourth Page—25¢

This Month's News.

A large and enthusiastic Republican Mass-Meeting was held at Albany Hall yesterday afternoon. Hon. John F. Potter, our present able and fearless representative in Congress was nominated for reelection by acclamation. In the evening an immense political gathering was held in Market Square, which was followed by a procession of the Wide-Awakes and War-Clubs. Altogether, it was the largest and most enthusiastic political gathering that has ever taken place here. Full particulars will be found in another column.

A man named JACK RILEY, residing at Henderson, Mich., while in a state of intoxication, murdered his mother in law and sister-in-law, and attempted to kill his father-in-law. The murderer escaped.

MARSHAL RYDERS, of New York, has been removed for refusing to oppose Douglas.

It is announced that the friends of Douglas have decided to nominate him for the Presidency in 1864.

A GRAND DEMONSTRATION!

THE PEOPLE IN COUNCIL.

The Republican Mass Meeting in this city, yesterday afternoon and evening, was the largest and most enthusiastic assembly we have ever seen in Milwaukee. Albany Hall was packed full, all the afternoon, and in the evening the gathering in Market Square surpassed, in numbers and spirit, anything of the kind we have yet had here. The speech of Senator DOOLITTLE was a masterpiece of logic and eloquence. The nominations of LINCOLN, HAMILIN, and PORTER, were ratified by acclamation. In the evening, the music, the bonfires, the thunder of the cannon and the brilliant turn out of the "Wide-Awakes," roused the enthusiasm of the multitude to the highest pitch. In short, the meeting was a splendid success and satisfied both friends and foes that WISCONSIN, as of old, is sound to the core, and will cast her electoral vote in November, by a majority of many thousands, for LINCOLN and HAM-LIN. On then, friends, to VICTORY!

For Douglas and Breckinridge.

The New York Herald, of Monday, publishes a long list of Democratic daily newspapers who have declared their preferences for DOUGLAS or for BRECKINRIDGE, which we condemn as follows:

Douglas, Breckinridge, 16
Alabama..... 1
Connecticut..... 1
Delaware..... 1
Florida..... 1
Georgia..... 2
Iowa..... 1
Illinois..... 5
Indiana..... 6
Kansas..... 1
Louisiana..... 1
Maine..... 1
Massachusetts..... 10
Michigan..... 1
Minnesota..... 1
Missouri..... 2
Maryland..... 2
New York..... 61
New Jersey..... 10
New Hampshire..... 4
North Carolina..... 4
Pennsylvania..... 7
Rhode Island..... 2
South Carolina..... 2
Tennessee..... 2
Texas..... 2
Vermont..... 5
Virginia..... 5
Wisconsin..... 1
District of Columbia..... 1
RECAPITULATION. Douglas, Breckinridge, 16
Breckinridge, Douglas, 16
North..... 18
South..... 18
Total..... 779
168

The Harvest in Waukesha.

EAGLE, Wis., July 11, 1860.

Messrs. Editors—I cut into my ry-this morning; the crop is full and fine.

I am yours with sentiments of esteem,

M. J. BOVEE.

A Douglas Fife.

BALTIMORE, July 6.

The Douglas meeting in Monument Square is a lamentable fiasco.

Fernando, who was expected to be the organ of the evening, contented himself with reading a letter full of platitudes.

The resolutions endorsing the Little Giant were voted down, but were declared carried by the partial Chalmers. Now, the Douglas met in the temple, a play in the Royal Botanical Gardens of Edinburgh, grew, under a temperature of from 65° to 75°, six inches—a specimen of the Bamboos the gigantea, of Burnside, which ranks as the tallest in the world. The Bamboos in twenty-four hours, the tallest in the world, of Bengal attains its full height seventy-feet—in about a month, thus growing at the astonishing rate of an inch an hour.

ALPHA.

CASSIUS M. CLAY AT LOUISVILLE.—On Saturday evening, Cass Clay made a Republican speech in Louisville to a large and orderly audience. Of the speech the Democrat says: "Cass is ingenious. He handles a Kentucky crowd skillfully, and is a whole, was able, temperate and interesting. Considered from the Republican point of view, and with respect to more topics; it was more notable for what it left out than for what it set forth."

The Courier says:

"The organ of slavery, and the position
of candidates thereon, formed the staple of his speech; and if the want of ability which characterised his argument excited surprise
in those who had not been prepared to meet it, the want of reason and force which have astonished men who expected him to talk as he really believed what he said."

The Journal says:

"Mr. Clay's speech, as a whole, was able,
temperate and interesting. Considered from
the Republican point of view, and with respect to more topics; it was more notable for
what it left out than for what it set forth."

The Courier says:

"The organ of slavery, and the position
of candidates thereon, formed the staple of
his speech; and if the want of ability which characterised his argument excited surprise
in those who had not been prepared to meet
it, the want of reason and force which
have astonished men who expected him to
talk as he really believed what he said."

CARDINAL WISHEMAN.—A letter from Rome in the Union says: "The health of Cardinal Wiseman inspires great uneasiness, as, notwithstanding the occasional appearance of favorable symptoms, successive relapses leave little hope of recovery."

SARACINE GREEN of Missouri, is for Brock-linbridge, as he is Senator Polk, of the same State.

OCASSIONAL.—writes to the Philadelphia Press that "the Broad-Awakes and Lampions now to a man are most formidable."

THE DOG FIGHT ENDING IN A MURDER AT BRECKINRIDGE.—At 10 o'clock this morning the man who attempted to stop a dog fight, was thrown into the canal by a drunken man, named Kelley, and was, with difficulty rescued by the bystanders. He was then set adrift, down into the canal, and kept alive by the current in the middle of the canal and drowned.

STILL ANOTHER.—Our readers having
come accustomed to the thing by this time,
will not be surprised at our telling them
another daily paper is about to be established in our wretched city. We do not refer to the Breckinridge Enquirer—which we believe is a fixed fact also—but to a Douglas newspaper to be launched by a man named Brown. It will come out, we understand,
next week some time.

THE PLACE FOR VESSELS TO PURCHASE
SUPPLIES.—A correspondent of the Chicago
Journal, after making a trip from this city to Collingwood on the propeller Hunter, writes a letter in which he says:

"The Hunter, on which the writer was a passenger, remained all day, taking on board a stock of provisions, for the coast informed us that he could buy meat cheaper in Milwaukee than in Chicago."

STILL ANOTHER.—Our readers having
come accustomed to the thing by this time,
will not be surprised at our telling them
another daily paper is about to be established in our wretched city. We do not refer to the Breckinridge Enquirer—which we believe is a fixed fact also—but to a Douglas newspaper to be launched by a man named Brown. It will come out, we understand,
next week some time.

STOVES! STOVES! COOKING

THE SENTINEL.

DAILY, TRI-WEEKLY & WEEKLY.

RUFUS KING, EDITOR.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 12, 1860.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT.
ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
OF ILLINOIS.FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.
HANNEBAL HAMILIN, OF MAINE.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

AT LARGE.

WALTER D. MURRAY, of Maryland.

BRAFORD BIXFORD, of Wisconsin.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

W. W. VAUGHN, of Racine.

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

J. ALLEN WARDER, of Grant.

THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

H. LINDEMEN, of Jefferson.

Republican Congressional Convention.

SEC. DISTRICT.

The several Assembly District Committees are requested to make measures for the appointment of delegates to said Congressional Convention, from their respective districts.

DAVID ATWOOD,
W. H. BROWN,
J. H. CHANDLER,
District Committee.

MILWAUKEE, June 24th, 1860.

Slavery and the Supreme Courts.

Mr. JAMES A. HAMILIN, of New York, a son of the great ALEXANDER HAMILIN, publishes in the New York Times of Friday last, a very able and conclusive argument against the assumption of the U. S. Supreme Court, that the Constitution recognizes Slavery as property, and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they please and are entitled to Congressional protection wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

"Slavery in its forms, in all its degrees, is a violation of divine law, and a degradation of human na-

"Not only does the Christian religion but nature herself out against the state of Slavery!"—Pope Leo.

"The wise and good man through all time, with an unimportant exception during a brief period in our country, has deplored Slavery as the most atrocious dis-

"Mr. HAMILIN reviews, at length, the pro-

"The proceedings of the Convention which framed the Constitution and proves, as well from the words as from the acts of that illustri-

"that they not only did not intend that the Constitu-

"and that therefore Slave owners have a right to take them wherever they go. Mr. HAMILIN prefuses his argument with the following preface:

"Even man's property in his own person: this makes him a slave!"—Locke.

"Natural liberty is the privi- of the benevolent Cre-"

"Slavery is a system of usage and robbery!"—So-cre-

"Every is a system of the most complete injustice."

—Plato.

"No man by nature is property of another."

—Dionysius.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Horrible Murder in Minnesota.
LA CROSSE, July 11—3 P. M.—A most brutal murder was committed at Brownwood, Minn., on Saturday evening. James J. Riley killed his mother-in-law and his sister-in-law, who barely escaped through a back door of the house, which stands by itself, some distance from any other house. The凶器 was a bowie knife. The murdered people are named Harkness. The excitement was intense, the whole neighborhood turned out in search of Riley. He is said to be escaped, perhaps, intoxicated. Riley kept a saloon in Brownsville.

Arrival and Sailing of Steamers.

BOSTON, July 11—3 P. M.—The U. S. Frig. Macedon arrived at Portsmouth, N. H., this morning, from the Madeira, which was en route to New York. The steamer Europa sailed at noon this morning, with 80 passengers for Liverpool and 15 for Halifax, and $17,600 in specie.

New York, July 11—3 P. M.—The steamer Glasgow, from Liverpool, thence up, arrived this morning.

Prince of Wales to Visit New York.

New York, July 11—3 P. M.—The more popular papers print a telegram from Lord Palmerston, accepting on behalf of the Prince of Wales the invitation to visit New York. The letter says the Prince, on leaving British soil, will lay aside all Royal state, exchanging his title for that of Lord Reufew.

No Due to the Wauton Murder.

New York, July 11—3 P. M.—There is yet no clue to the Wauton murder. The executors of Mr. Wauton will $4,000 reward additional to the Mayor's.

Dugles to Be Run in 1864.

WASHINGTON, July 11—3 P. M.—The Tribune's correspondence says: The friends of Mr. Douglas, after consultation, have determined to nominate him for the Presidency in 1864.

Efforts to Remove Mr. Gutz.

WASHINGTON, June 11—3 P. M.—Efforts are being made to effect the removal of Madison Gutz, (Second Comptroller), of the cashier-in-law of Douglas.

Senator Gwin Sailed for California.

New York, July 11—3 P. M.—Senator Gwin was among the passengers in the steamer Northern Light, for California.

Virginia Democratic State Convention.

Richmond, July 11—3 P. M.—The Executive Committee have called the Democratic State Convention at Charlottesville, August 16.

Visitors to the Great Eastern.

New York, July 11—3 P. M.—The Great Eastern had over 6,000 visitors yesterday.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

New York Matters.

New York, July 11—9 P. M.—A despatch to the Philadelphia Press says that Major General W. H. Rosecrans, is removed to oppose Douglass.

Councilman Kerrian attempted to shoot General Custer in the City Hall Park to-day, but was prevented. It was stated that it is Alford, a Kansan, who shot at a Kansan and another lady to take a sail in a yacht on the East River, last Thursday night, and attempted violence upon them. The loud screams of the ladies attracted attention, and they were saved when the men sailed away. The men had given the Alford a notice of his intention to shoot him. A bloody scuffle to the affair is anticipated.

Mrs. Schonmakers, one of the visitors of the tray on 71st street, died last night.

The attack of the daily papers on New York for 20 years, died this morning, after a 6 month's illness. He was a native of Ireland and a nephew of Daniel O'Connell.

A poor girl, named Jeannette Palister, ran out of a second-story window of her residence in Delaney street, last night, while in a state of somnambulism, and was almost instantly killed.

Jas. Doherty was severely, but dangerously, stabbed last night by a laborer named Doherty Meate, whom he had refused to trust.

Five thousand and two hundred and seventy-four persons visited the Great Eastern yesterday. The excitement in regard to the arrival of the steamer of Paraguay is the greatest that could be.

The Republic of Paraguay is represented by J. M. Garibaldi, Esq., of this city, as its attorney.

The Senator had printed on Monday and delivered to the hands of 600,000 copies the Agricultural part of the Patent Office Report.

Twenty thousand copies additional will be ready in the course of a few days. The printing of this document was delayed by the action of the Postmaster General in the order of the Postmaster General.

The paper of the House had already been printed, bound and delivered. There is no truth in the report that the House printer has suspended operations as the Attorney General has not yet given an opinion as to the constitutionality of the law reducing the price to be paid for printing.

The Report of the Coöde Committee makes 810 pages. Of the 100,000 copies ordered by the House, 99,000 will be ready for distribution in the course of a week.

Congress at the last session, ordered printing an expense of at least $300,000.

Workmen commenced this morning the removal of the several monuments in the park and on the two sides of the capitol. It is to be transferred to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, in pursuance of the late order of Congress.

Rockbridge Muster and State Ticket in Illinois.

CHICAGO, July 11—9 P. M.—The Breckinridge wing of the Democracy held a State Convention at Springfield, to decide on the course to be pursued by the party of Breckinridge and Lane, and recommending to each county and senatorial district to present a full ticket of the National Democrats to be voted for the ensuing election. The following State ticket was adopted.

For Governor—Thomas M. Hoy.

For Lieutenant Governor—Thomas Snell.

For Secretary of State—B. O. Burke.

For Auditor—Harry H. Smith.

For Treasurer—John C. Cather.

For Senator at Large—John Dougherty, and Thompson Campbell.

The nominations were received with much enthusiasm. 105 guns were fired in honor of the nominations.

The Zouaves at Utica.

Utica, July 11—9 P. M.—The U. S. Zouave Cadets of Chicago, said to be the best drilled company in the Union, were received in this city to-day with great military display by the 5th Regiment, 1st and 2nd, Gen. G. W. Smith, and a massive crowd witnessed the drillings. The Zouaves leave for Troy to-morrow morning, and will be in New York Saturday morning.

Masonic.

OTTAWA, July 11—9 P. M.—The Masonic Grand Lodge of Canada, met here to-day. A large number of delegates are assembled from all parts of Canada. The session was occupied in receiving reports and the annual address of the Grand Master.

Dougherty's Ratification Meeting at Albany.

ALBANY, July 11—8 P. M.—The friends of Douglass and Johnson had a ratification meeting at the Hotel Park. It was the largest public gathering ever held in the city—fully ten thousand persons being present.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

A BELL-EVERETT ORGAN.

In Georgia, the Douglassites are much disconcerted, and their bands of organists set out to the State either for Douglass or organ.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

Georgia outfit up.

In Georgia, the Douglassites are much disconcerted, and their bands of organists set out to the State either for Douglass or organ.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

While the Southern supporters claim for him the North and the West, which are sure for Lincoln.

It is rather remarkable that Douglass' most ardent adherents are Douglassites.

<div data-bbox